2018 FREEDOM THROUGH LITERACY AWARD

www.JudithsReadingRoom.org

The 4th annual Judith's Reading Room "Freedom Through Literacy" Award will honor individual champions of literacy from all disciplines around the world — teachers, librarians, authors, researchers, educators — anyone who has done exemplary work to instill in others a love of reading. The Award carries a top prize of $3,000, the Judith's Award (exclusive for teachers, librarians and authors) is $500. And, a pool of $1,000 will be available as a Board Option for Board of Directors to nominate champions of literacy over the course of the year.

We seek examples of literacy projects and/or programs that are innovative and creative and clearly express the individual's philosophy about literacy.

Application includes these questions:

- With concrete examples, tell us how your literacy project is innovative or creative?
- How has your project fostered a love of reading in others?
- What is your individual philosophy about literacy?

Deadline for Applications: July 6, 2018

Winners will be announced on Judith's Reading Room's website and through social media no later than the end of July, 2018.
